

This a picture of my brain.

A lot of things change in thirty years, but one thing didn't —
I'm still a nut.

Fortunately, there are companies who pay me for some of the wild ideas running through my head now, including RIVCO, the FleetCenter, Goodale's, Timberland Factory
Outlets, Energy Sciences, Beckonings, Burkart Flutes and others.

If you need great marketing or advertising, give me a call.
Just want to catch up? Call after hours.
Same number, even less restraint.

Enjoy the reunion!
